

QUIERO LLC

Privacy Policy

English Version

At QUIERO LLC ("QUIERO", "we"), we value the privacy of our users and customers. This policy explains what personal data we collect, for what purpose, how we process it, and what rights you have over it. We manage your information in accordance with the privacy laws of the United States, the European Union (GDPR), and other applicable jurisdictions.

1. Data Controller

QUIERO LLC, registered in Wyoming (USA) with its principal office at 1000 Brickell Avenue, Suite #715 PMB 153, Miami, Florida 33131, United States, is the data controller for your personal data. You may contact us at privacy@quierosim.com for any queries related to your data or to exercise your rights.

2. Data We Collect and How We Obtain It

We collect personal data when you interact with our website, purchase an eSIM, or contact us. The types of data include:

- Identification data: first name, last name, email address, and contact details.
- Transaction data: payment information (such as card tokens managed by the payment provider), purchase history, and acquired plan.
- Technical data: device information (model, operating system), IP address, eSIM identifiers, and plan usage data (consumption, activation and expiration dates).
- Customer support data: communications you maintain with us via email, chat, or social media.

We obtain this data directly from you when you register, purchase an eSIM, or contact us. We also receive information from third parties, such as payment processors and our connectivity provider, which is necessary to activate the eSIM and provide the service.

3. Purposes and Legal Bases for Processing

We process your data for the following purposes and in accordance with these legal bases:

Purpose	Legal Basis	Data Processed
Service provision: processing your purchase, activating the eSIM, managing the data plan, and providing support	Contract performance	Identification, transaction, and technical data
Account management and operational communication: sending activation alerts, usage notifications, and support messages	Contract performance	Identification and technical data
Customer support: responding to inquiries, complaints, and requests	Legitimate interest / Contract performance	Identification and customer support data

Legal compliance: fulfilling tax, accounting obligations and authority requirements	Legal obligation	Transaction and identification data
Service improvement and direct marketing: analyzing usage to optimize services and sending communications about similar products, if you have not objected	Legitimate interest	Technical and usage data
Consent-based marketing: sending you offers and news when you have expressly authorized it	Consent	Identification data and preferences

4. Sharing Data with Third Parties

We may share your personal data with:

- Service providers: payment processing companies, hosting services, email, and customer support providers that act on our behalf under confidentiality agreements.
- eSIM platform provider: we work with an external provider that enables eSIM activation and plan management. This provider will process your data in accordance with their contractual and data protection obligations.
- Public or regulatory authorities: when required by law or necessary to protect our rights or respond to legal requirements.

We never sell your personal data to third parties for commercial purposes.

5. International Transfers

Operating globally, we may transfer your data to countries outside your jurisdiction, including the United States and Switzerland. When transferring data outside the European Economic Area or other jurisdictions with strict privacy laws, we implement appropriate protective measures, such as standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission or equivalent agreements, to ensure your data is protected.

6. Data Retention

We retain your personal data for the duration of our contractual relationship and for a reasonable period after its termination to comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements. The criteria we use include the duration of the relationship, legal requirements, and limitation periods.

7. Information Security

We apply technical and organizational measures to protect personal data against unauthorized access, misuse, loss, or destruction. These measures include encryption, access controls, and password management policies. While we strive to protect your information, no method of transmission or storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

8. User Rights

In accordance with data protection laws, you have the following rights over your personal data:

- Access: request a copy of the data we hold about you.
- Rectification: ask us to update or correct inaccurate data.
- Erasure: request the deletion of your data under certain circumstances.
- Restriction of processing: ask us to limit the use of your data when you contest its accuracy or the processing is unlawful.
- Portability: receive your data in a structured, machine-readable format.
- Objection: object to processing based on our legitimate interest; in particular, you may object to receiving marketing communications at any time.
- Not to be subject to automated decisions: not to be subject to decisions based solely on automated processing that have legal or significant effects.

To exercise any of these rights, send an email to privacy@quierosim.com. We may request additional information to verify your identity.

9. Children's Data

We do not provide services to persons under 18 years of age, nor do we knowingly collect their data. If you are under 18, you must not use our services. If we discover that we have collected data from a minor, we will delete it.

10. Changes to This Policy

We may update this policy from time to time. We will publish the updated version on our website with the revision date. For significant changes, we will notify you by email or through a prominent notice on the site. Continued use of the Services after the amendments take effect will imply your acceptance of the updated policy.
